PART 3
OF 5

OFFICERS'

Conference Planner

2025/26

How to use this Planner

1. The pages in this planner should be printed and used when planning meetings and activities.
2. Use the monthly Officers' Conference Agenda Sheets (pages 6-17) as your guide on how to run your Officers' Conference meeting.
3. Use the monthly Patrol Meeting Planning Sheets (pages 18-19) to plan out specific details for each regular patrol meeting.
4. Use the Activity Wish List Sheets (pp. 20-21) to record any Troop or patrol activity that you wish to incorporate into future plans. Share this with the adult Troop Committee.
5. Use the additional Activity Planning Sheets (pp. 22-25) to plan details such as duty rosters, shopping lists, and equipment lists.

Learn the skills with Trail Life's Field Guides!

Lightweight, tear-resistant, and waterproof, these Field Guides are designed with outdoor adventures in mind.

Each of these guides is made to easily fold and stuff into your backpack, pocket, or stuff sack. On your next outdoor adventure remember to pack the appropriate Field Guide and enjoy the adventure!

Youth Leadership

As youth leaders in Trail Life, you have the opportunity to shape the tone and direction of your patrol as well as your whole Troop. As a member of the Officers' Conference you will meet regularly, ideally monthly, to complete four main responsibilities:

4 RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE OFFICERS' CONFERENCE:

1. Review your Troop's annual plan and activities.
2. Debrief recently completed patrol or Troop activities.
3. Plan out upcoming Navigators and Adventurers patrol meetings.
4. Create a "wish list" for the next year's Troop and patrol activities.

This planner will provide you with a monthly Officers' Conference meeting outline that will walk you through completing these four main responsibilities.

As you meet and plan, remember that your Troop is owned and operated by your Charter Organization. You and your Troop's adult leaders must humbly submit to the guidance and direction set forth by your Charter Organization. Your Troop's Troop Ministry Liaison is the adult leader in charge of ensuring this alignment. Make sure that he is fully aware of your patrol and Troop plans.
